A.L.A. Meet Is Set for March 14th
 American Legion Auxiliary Unit No. 170 will hold a regular business meeting Monday, March 14, at 8 p.m. in St. Andrew's Guild Hall. Hazel Comfort, 19th District president, will be the honored guest and speaker of the evening. All members are urged to attend. Initiation will be a feature of the evening. Square dancing highlighted the last social meeting when music was furnished by Tom Mullins and his five-piece band. This meeting was open to the public and a small donation was accepted from each person attending. Funds were allocated for child welfare work.

Dinner Dance Highlights Sorority Installation
 Forty members and their guests attended the first public installation ceremonies of Zeta Chapter, Phi Sigma Phi Sorority, at the new Veterans of Foreign Wars hall in Wilmington Wednesday night. In candlelight ceremony Mrs. W. J. Kelly, national vice-president, installing officer; Mrs. S. G. Harker, sergeant-at-arms and Mrs. J. W. Plantz, past national vice-president serving as chaplain, installed the officers-elect. Taking the oaths of their respective offices were Mrs. R. P. Kellogg, president; Mrs. J. W. Bryan, vice-president; Mrs. R. L. Hultz, recording secretary; Mrs. Raul Gerhart, treasurer; Mrs. George Tait, corresponding secretary; Mrs. George Bacon, his torian, and Mrs. V. L. Stalcup, sergeant-at-arms. A ham dinner was served by members of the Wilmington Auxiliary to the Veterans of Foreign Wars with the speaker's table beautifully decorated with a floral arrangement of Bird of Paradise, fern and heather. Dafodils, heather, and ferns artistically centered the remaining tables. Mrs. Kellogg, who announced that more welfare work will take the attention of the group during the ensuing year, presented the immediate past president, Mrs. C. W. Opsahl, with a gift of appreciation on behalf of the chapter. The ceremonies were followed by dancing.

Church Events Attract Both Young and Old
 Church activities at the First Baptist Church are holding the interest of both the adult and youth groups as church and social events fill the calendar. The Women's Missionary group met in the home of Mrs. Mel Savage, 1749 W. 25th street Wednesday for an all-day meeting. President Mrs. William Brooks conducted a brief business meeting and Mrs. Acie Coble was in charge of devotions. Rag rugs occupied the attention of the group as they continued this project. A delicious lunch was served to Mesdames John Peres, William Brooks, A. Mack, C. Adkinson, Acie Coble, G. E. Phifer, J. Campin, C. W. Fleckinger, F. A. Sanford, H. C. Carnal and W. F. Braughton.
